THIS IS UNCLASSIFIED INFORMATION APPROVING THE RELEASE UNDER E.O. 13526
OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTION 701
AND 702, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. IT IS TRANSMISSION OR REVE-LATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE INFORMATION IS UNCLASSIFIED IN FORMULA.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Humanian payments in kind, on war reparations account, should have ended in Sep 1953. In spite of this, no agreement has as yet been signed, authorizing cessation of such shipments.
2. Humanian deliveries in kind have been of two sorts--outright reparations compensation for war damage, and the profits of the Sovroms, about 3,671,000,000 US dollars. Under the peace treaty, reparations were to have been $300,000,000 but as early as 1946 deliveries on this account had already exceeded $1,000,000,000. Yet the Soviet authorities are finding fault with the Central Direction for their administration of the State Plan. For the still incomplete last three months of 1953, this has not reached more than eighty percent of what was anticipated.
3. The following departments are under fire:
 - Ministry of the Coal Industry
 - Ministry of Forestry
 - Industrial Enterprises for Foreign Trade
 - Ministry of the Food Industry.
 The principal criticism is directed against the Industrial Enterprises for Foreign Trade. Humanian foreign trade is already seventy-five percent with the Soviets, twenty percent with the other people's democracies, and only five percent with the free world.
4. As usual, trade agreements are imposed rather than negotiated. Humania is forbidden to buy from other countries any commodity that the Soviet Union can supply. She is likewise forbidden to sell to other countries anything that the Soviet Union can itself buy or can itself resell, in other Satellite countries.
5. A trade agreement was signed in Oct 1953, between Humania and Korea. Under this agreement, Humania will grant North Korea economic aid, for which Humania will not be reimbursed. Food shipments to North Korea have already increased considerably during the last two months.
